

Adult Bible Fellowships

“ABF’s” for short are a way for you to connect with others on a Sunday morning through Bible study, fellowship and prayer.

First-Hour ABF’s - meet at 9:00 a.m.

Challengers - Led by Ed Heckman in Room 318

Description: Geared for adults in their late 30s to early 50s with school-aged children. Focusing on digging into the riches of the Bible and integrating it into every day life.

Homebuilders - Led by Matt Weaver in Room 308

Description: Consists mostly of young married couples who are starting families.

Horizons - Led by Bob White in Room 321 (Art Room)

Description: Engaged and recently married couples attend this ABF. Focusing on marriage, parenting, and financial stewardship.

Second Hour ABF’s - meet at 10:45 a.m.

Encouragers - Led by Peter Siegrist and Bill Albers in Room 318

Description: Mostly adults age 50 and older, ranging from parents of younger children to empty nesters.

Enterprise - Led by Linford Youndt and Ron Moore in the Fellowship Hall

Navigators - Led by Chet Halstead and Paul Keller in Room 317

Description: This class is for empty nesters. They enjoy social times as well as Bible study.

Roaring 20’s - Led by Merv & Charlene Bruckhart and Jeff & Louise Wool in Room 310

Description: Geared for those in their 20’s and early 30’s.

Seekers - Led by Pastor Whitie Willard in Room 316

Description: Empty nesters and nearly empty nesters who enjoy fellowship, Bible study and a discussion on a wide range of Biblical topics.